INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEMPORARY LICENSE APPLICATION

QUALIFICATIONS & ELIGIBILITY:

A respiratory therapist may apply for a temporary license to practice in this state pursuant to A.R.S. § 32-3124 if the applicant meets all of the following requirements:

1. Have already submitted an initial application for a license and paid the applicable fees.
2. Must hold or have held an RRT credential issued by the Nationals Board of Respiratory Care (NBRC)
3. Hold an active and unrestricted license to practice the profession of respiratory care in a state, territory or possession of the United States.
4. Have never had a health profession license revoked, suspended or denied.
5. Are not the subject of any unresolved complaint against the person's respiratory license.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Section 1: Attestation: To qualify for a temporary respiratory therapy license, you must attest to the existence of certain conditions. You are required to notify the Board immediately if there are any changes to these circumstances during the application process or while holding a volunteer health services registration, at which time the Board may deny the pending application for a volunteer health services registration or revoke the volunteer health services registration.
2. Section 2: Notarized Signature: By signing the application, you are declaring under penalty of perjury that all statements on the application are true and correct. False or misleading statements on an application are acts of unprofessional conduct and grounds for disciplinary actions, including denial of the application for licensure or revocation of a temporary license.
3. If granted, the temporary license will expire in thirty (30) days from the date of issuance.
4. Submit the Application for Temporary License in person, by regular mail or email.
5. There is no fee for charged for this application or temporary license

The Americans with Disabilities Act: Persons with disabilities may request reasonable accommodations, such as sign language interpreters. Requests should be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation. This document is available in alternative format upon request.

In accordance with A.R.S. § 41-1030, the Board is required to notify you of the following:

B. An agency shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule or state tribal gaming compact. A general grant of authority in statute does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless a rule is made pursuant to that general grant of authority that specifically authorizes the requirement or condition.

D. This section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against the state. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against the state for a violation of this section.

E. A state employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the Agency's adopted personnel policy.

F. This section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12-820.01 of 12-820.02.

32-3124. Temporary licensure; rules; fee; applicability

A. A health profession regulatory board in this state may issue a temporary license to allow an applicant who is not a licensee to practice in this state if the applicant meets all of the following requirements:

1. Holds an active and unrestricted health profession license in a state, territory or possession of the United States.
2. Has never had a health profession license revoked or suspended.
3. Is not the subject of an unresolved complaint against the person's health profession license.
4. Has paid any applicable fees.

B. The applicant shall submit to the respective health profession regulatory board a notarized affidavit attesting that the applicant meets the requirements of the respective licensing chapter. The applicant shall notify the board immediately if a circumstance specified in subsection A of this section changes during the application period for a temporary license or while holding a temporary license, at which time the board may suspend, deny or revoke the temporary license. The board may suspend, deny or revoke a temporary license and deny the application for initial licensure if the applicant has misrepresented the attestation required by this subsection or any other portion of the application pursuant to this article.

C. A health profession regulatory board shall approve or deny an application under this section within thirty days after an applicant submits a complete application.

The Americans with Disabilities Act: Persons with disabilities may request reasonable accommodations, such as sign language interpreters. Requests should be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation. This document is available in alternative format upon request.

D. If granted, a temporary license issued pursuant to this section expires the earlier of thirty days after the date the temporary license is granted or on approval or denial of the applicant's license application submitted pursuant to the respective health profession regulatory board.

E. For the purpose of meeting the requirements of subsection A of this section, an applicant shall provide the respective health profession regulatory board the name of each state, territory or possession of the United States in which the person is licensed or has held a license, and the board shall verify with the applicable regulatory board that the applicant holds an active and unrestricted license and has never had a license revoked or suspended or surrendered a license for disciplinary reasons. The board may accept the confirmation of this information from each other regulatory board verbally, in writing or through the use of the other regulatory board's website, which shall be followed by either an electronic or hard copy of the verification required. If the board is unable to verify the information within the initial thirty days as required by subsection C of this section, the board may extend the time frame by an additional thirty days to receive the necessary verification.

F. The temporary license may not be renewed.

G. A health profession regulatory board may not issue more than two temporary licenses to the same applicant within a consecutive twelve-month period.

H. A health profession regulatory board may establish an application and fee in rule for temporary licensure under this section.

I. This section applies to a health profession regulatory board to the extent that this section does not conflict with the board's current statutory authority relating to temporary licensure.
